EUNICE GOODWIN OVERMAN

We, the seniors, do proudly dedicate . . .

Because you have progressed through the grades with us, because you have instilled in each of us a meaningful sense of personal aspiration, because you have experienced with us delightful moments of sheer enjoyment from Washington to New York, because you do not forget that you were once a teenager, because you love us and help us remedy our problems, we the Seniors of 1964, with fond hearts, dedicate this, the 1964 Spotlight to you,

EUNICE GOODWIN OVERMAN

Our teacher . . .

Our counselor and friend.

Foreword . . .

An endless whirl of serious studies and gay activities characterizes our way of life at E. C. H. S. We progress in an environment of varied components which enables us to understand, accept, or question the present and future of which we are a part. Football in the autumn, basketball in the winter, and baseball, track, golf, and tennis in the spring are all objects of our sparkling enthusiasm. We are proud of our outstanding band and excellent glee club and the performances they stage. More than ten clubs function actively on campus to encourage our participation in school affairs. Our entire student body merrily attends the Christmas dance, but the upperclassmen secretly anticipate the elegant Junior-Senior ball. We experience moments of victory and of defeat, of tragedy and of exultation. We do these things together. All this is our way of life . . . ECHS '64!

Our day at ECHS begins.

When we come to the end of the day . . .

coming '63

A night to remember--the new royalty begin their reign!

Homecoming 1963 was climaxed on October 11 during halftime ceremonies at Memorial Field. Buddy Madrin and Dixie Nash were crowned king and queen by Dr. Ben E. Fountain, superintendent of city schools. The royalty were accompanied by their court. After many weeks of preparation, the festivities actually got under way with a pep rally on Thursday night. Unfortunately the theme, "Lick 'em Jackets" didn't work too well in the game Friday. A parade on Friday, regarded by many as the best ever, helped get everyone in the "homecoming" spirit. Even though victory was not ours, we knew we had experienced one of the greatest homecomings ever.

The White Phantom of Greenville is burned in effigy as Jacket fans make ready for Friday night's game.

Jackets' season off to slow start

PERQUIMANS:

The Combs brothers led a mighty Indian attack to defeat the Yellow Jackets 26-0 in the first game of the season for both teams. Fortunately for the Jackets, the game was non-conference.

TARBORO:

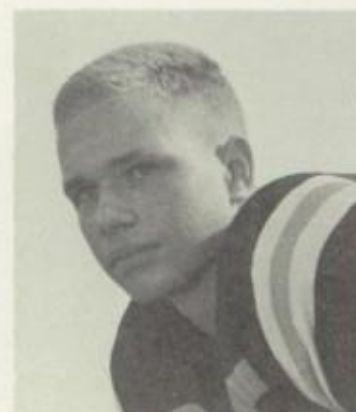

An inspired Yellow Jacket team, handicapped by a series of injuries, rallied in the fourth quarter to hand Tarboro an 8-6 defeat in E. C.'s first league game of the season. The ecstasy of the victorious outcome was marred by the broken leg suffered by Ronnie Fearing, outstanding Jacket halfback.

Win over RR Jackets highlights season

WASHINGTON:

Jerry Warren kicked the Jackets over the top of a favored Pam Pack eleven by defeating them 3-0 in this tense, close game. The Jackets played an excellent defensive game as John Childers, Frank Davenport, Sam McCaskill, and Monty Jolley led the brilliant exhibition that thwarted Washington's every move.

ROANOKE RAPIDS:

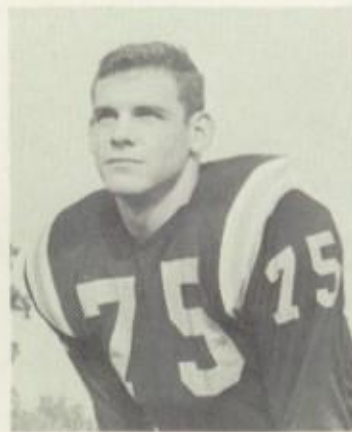

Elizabeth City Yellow Jacket fans will not soon forget the brilliant game played by their team against the Roanoke Rapids Jax. Connecting on 17 out of 35 passes, E. C. sailed smoothly over the opposition despite 120 yards lost in penalties. Fullback Tommy Reeves, rising from third string, drove over the goal line for two scores, and Heywood Sawyer connected on a pass to Steve Weeks to soundly beat RR 18-0.

Defeats plague Jackets

Occupying top place in the Northeastern Conference, Elizabeth City met Edenton in a non-league game, only to be shaken in its laurels by receiving a 23-13 defeat at the hands of the Aces. The Yellow Jackets faced their adversaries with a patched, but highly spirited team, and fought for points till the end. Before the end of the first quarter, both teams had scored, but the Aces moved blithely ahead and were not scored upon again until the end of the fourth quarter.

A beautifully planned and much looked forward to homecoming weekend was marred for Elizabeth City when the Jackets lost a heartbreaker to the Greenville Phantoms 13-6. A magnificent play in which Sawyer lateraled to Hess on the right sideline and Hess threw downfield to Doug Smith, who caught the ball in the open, gave the fans a few brief, ecstatic moments before it was nullified for penalties.

Owens gains yardage against Greenville in homecoming contest.

Jackets pulled down before they cross the goal line.

Top ranked Kinston managed to barely edge by the highly laudable team efforts of the Yellow Jackets to beat them 7-0. The Red Devils were held admirably until the last of the fourth quarter when with only slightly less than three minutes remaining in the game, they piled over the goal line and then converted for the game's single score.

The Yellow Jackets' stored

skill and effort always seem to be unleashed in the most foreboding weather. This theory certainly proved true the night Elizabeth City invaded the Bears' den. Playing in the rains produced by Hurricane Ginny, two Jackets, Doug Smith and Jimmy Owens, aided by an enthusiastic team support, crossed the goal line for Elizabeth City's scores to beat New Bern 12-6.

Jackets end season with 5-5 record

In a repeat of the '62 game, Elizabeth City handed Jacksonville a 7-0 defeat when Gary Hess scored on a handoff for the Jackets late in the first quarter. Offensive playing was dull on both sides; but Jolley showed an excellent defense for the Jackets.

The greatly favored Yellow Jackets, stunned by the first play from scrimmage which ended in the End Zone for the Hawks, presented Bertie Central their only win of the season by a score of 13-12. Hess and Smith scored for Elizabeth City.

Jackets start good season as Helms goes up to direct jumpball to his teammates.

Basketball success shined at ECHS this year as the varsity team fought hard to a winning season and third place in the Northeastern conference.

Co-captained by Rod Jurash and John Fehrenbacher, the Jackets provided fans with many moments not soon to be forgotten. There were close games, there were one-sided games, even a game that took three overtimes to decide the victor.

Though they had injured players for part of the season, the Jackets' spirit was never daunted. They went on to their finest season since 1956 and provided fans with a season, a spirit, and a record of which to be proud.

Nancy Flood headed the varsity cheerleading squad in many a rousing cheer this year. Her group of senior, junior, and sophomore girls infused into the students a full enjoyment of sport and spirit during football and basketball games and the autumn pep rallies.

The gay decorations on the football field and in the basketball gymnasium during homecoming games were the work of the squad; the girls supported the team in all ways. They cheered at all home games and all weekend out-of-town games in which the jackets participated.

Spotlight records our way

After spending many study halls, afternoons, and Saturdays working on the SPOTLIGHT, Bettie Gard and Steve Maddox, Co-Editors, are able to look back with pride on their hard work and frustrations. Two others who can emit a sign of a relief are Miss Ownes and Mrs. Bowers, Sponsors. Photographs, schedules, copy, identifications, typing, layout pages, ads, deadlines, and bills are just memories now, but each moment of the long weeks of work can be relived by scanning these pages. The SPOTLIGHT staff hopes that our way of life will be imbedded always within these pages and that it will grow dearer to each as the memories mellow with age.

THE LOUDSPEAKER, our school paper is published monthly by an editorial staff of nineteen. Section editors and reporters cover different phases of school activities. The managing editor co-ordinates the different sections and makes story assignments. These stories and pictures are placed in position in the paper by the editor-in-chief.

The business manager takes care of all the LOUDSPEAKER'S finances. The solicitors sell the ads which, along with a small fee paid by each student, pay for the costs of publication.

Staff membership is voluntary and positions are assigned by the advisor. Members of the staff attended several seminars and institutes this year to learn the basic concepts of journalism and gain new ideas.

The LOUDSPEAKER provides an opportunity for students to write, draw, and practice photography. It serves the school by reporting past and future happenings, reflecting opinions, providing a showcase for creative writing, and giving enjoyment to the readers.

The National Honor Society has become recognized nationally as one of the most esteemed high school organizations. The entire aura of the club centers on the four goals: CHARACTER, SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP and SERVICE.

Elizabeth City's chapter has participated actively in school projects throughout the year. During the Christmas season it donated food to a needy family. Members are available to tutor students in various subjects.

Every year the local chapter sends delegates to the state convention where they meet with students from other schools and discuss ideas related to American youth.

Organized to "render dedicated service," the Key Club has well fulfilled its objective this year. The twenty-four members of the club have assisted in collecting tickets at all the school athletic functions. They promote church attendance and have aided in other community projects such as setting up the blood-mobile. This year the Key Club erected a sign in the gymnasium promoting good sportsmanship in victory or defeat.

F T A emulates qualities of good teachers

Bettie Gard, President; Annette Baum, Vice-President; Gail Joyner, Secretary; George Bright, Treasurer.

Students interested in the field of teaching thoroughly enjoy their membership in the Future Teachers of America Club. At every meeting a community educator is presented to inform the members of the various opportunities in the teaching profession.

The central project of the F.T.A. this year was to pay tribute to the excellent work of the high school teachers. Each month one teacher was singled out for special honor as "Teacher of the Month." All the teachers received favors on different holidays.

F H A affords experience in homemaking

Judy Mooring served as the 1963-64 president of the Future Homemakers of America Club, an organization conceived for the purpose of building better homes through the education of tomorrow's homemakers. Any girl who has taken home economics for one or more years is eligible for membership into the F.H.A. Bake sales, candy sales, and mother-daughter entertainment comprised the club's activities this year.

The Science Club was organized this year for the purpose of stimulating interest in the sciences both as a vocation and an avocation. The students who joined the organization realized the vitalness of science and desired to learn more about it. The activities of the organization centered upon projects in which the members engaged upon interesting discussions about modern scientific breakthroughs.

Musical Tempo Club stimulates interest

in music

By far the largest organization on campus is the Musical Tempo Club which was formed by students who enjoy all types of music. At the meetings members are given the opportunity to exhibit their talents in planned programs.

During the Christmas holidays, the members attended a banquet which was followed by a round of carolling at the hospital and nursing homes. At the annual spring dance which the club had, awards were presented to outstanding students who were voted "most talented".

Scott C. Callaway, Director

To quote Mr. Callaway--"The band this year has the potential of being the best our school has ever had." This definitely is one of the most outstanding aspects of ECHS, and we are invariably proud of it. Organization of this group really begins at band camp before the opening of school. It is here that the members prepare themselves individually and in groups for the football season and the year ahead. This year the band participated in every pep rally and provided excellent half-time entertainment at all the Jackets' football games.

The activity schedule did not even slow down after the football season. Following in quick succession were appearances at the Oyster Bowl, various Christmas parades, a Christmas concert presented jointly with the glee club, and the Wright Memorial celebrations and dedication ceremonies.

Now the band is eagerly planning a trip to the New York World's Fair. Their work this year has been commendable. They have done much to instill in our school a sense of pride and spirit. The band is most definitely one of the outstanding aspects of our school.

One of our truly outstanding organizations is the combined chorus. This year, the two choruses have been separated for the first time into lower and advanced groups.

The chorus activities are many. Participation in the Festival Chorus at Greensboro, the North Carolina Choral Workshop, and the choral contest at Greenville are some of the highlights of the year for chorus members. Other activities included a Christmas concert presented jointly with the band, singing in assembly, and singing for the baccalaureate service at graduation.

Meet your friends at the Circle and enjoy

The best of food.

THE CIRCLE

All a part of "Our Way of Life"

It has been a long year since last September, or should we say since last July. That's when the work on this 1964 SPOTLIGHT began. This yearbook was "born", so to speak, last summer at the North Carolina Scholastic Press Association's annual journalism conference at Chapel Hill. The many changes within the covers of this book were inspired by our instructor, Mr. G. Leslie Browne, of Myers Park High School, Charlotte. We extend our thanks to him for his numerous suggestions.

Our greatest, most sincere thanks go to Mr. Thomas, and to our advisors, Miss Owens and Mrs. Bowers. There have been trying times for us all. We personally thank them for putting up with us for a full year.

We are grateful, too, to Mr. Max Ward, and to Delmar Publishing Company, who have helped us immensely in solving our many problems during the year. Without this help the SPOTLIGHT would not have been possible.

Certainly we thank the faculty for their tolerance on the many days of class disruption.

We are grateful to our advertisers who made this book possible.

Sincere thanks go to the entire SPOTLIGHT staff, whose willingness to work has made this book. To the editorial staff, the advertising staff, the literary staff, the photography staff, and the typing staff, "Thank you all!"

There are many more people too numerous to mention, that merit our gratitude.

Last of all, but by no means least, we thank the entire student body for their support of the SPOTLIGHT throughout the year.

It has been a long year, with many people helping us along the way. It's been fun for us all. We hope you enjoy your SPOTLIGHT as much as we enjoyed preparing it for you.

Best wishes and much happiness to you all!

Sincerely,

Bettie and Steve
